Craner Offers to Help Automobilists Stop Thefts of Machines.

G. W. Craner, of the imperial garake $10 Mills street, suggests the formation of a mutual protection association among automobilists to offer rewards for the arrest and conviction of thieses making away with motor cars. Mr. Craner thinks the automobilists of the city could form and conduct such, an association very reasonably, each nember paring his portion only of all rewards paid. Mr. Craner offers to act free of charge as socretary of such an organization and says he would, immediately following the theft of a car, telephone the name and number of the car, also the color and general description to the police. He would also notify the custom house officers stationed at the international bridges and would telephone and telegraph at once to all nearly towns to keep a lookout for the stelen machine. Air Craner believes the offering of a reward for the arrest and conviction of anyone stealing in automobile will seen stook this ways of
